

WELCOME TO OUR

Monthly Newsletter

General Greeting

Welcome to the first edition of the new and improved World Literature and Languages Student Union Newsletter! Editions will be published monthly and include updates about union events, department opportunities, and an open submission for WLL students to share their works and interests.

This month's newsletter will include pictures from our latest event in collaboration with SFU Polyglots, some upcoming events hosted by our friends in the Department of English, and an Exclusive Interview with WLLSU President Amrit Kullar!

In this newsletter you will find:

Recent and upcoming events, union and departmental opportunities, and an exclusive interview!

Multilingual Karaoke WLLSU x Polyglots

BUBBLE TEA, FOOD, AND SONGS IN ANY LANGUAGE

September 27th was WLLSU's inaugural karaoke event in collaboration with SFU Polyglots. Bubble tea, pizza, and fried chicken kept us going for 4 hours of singing our hearts out.

We were happy to welcome special guest Sheila Minatti, a voice teacher and trained opera singer from Brazil.

Interview with WLLSU President Amrit Kullar

What got you into World Literature?

I was always into English and I needed a W requirement course. Long story short, I found WL104W with Dr. Mark Deggan and loved it. Not to mention, I made a friend in this course, who is now our treasurer for WLLSU, and my long-time university best friend.

What is your favorite event hosted by WLLSU?

My favourite event to host is our annual World Literature Student Conference (WLSC) held in the spring semester. This year would mark my four-year participation in running the event with our faculty leads.

What is the best part of being in the union?

The people. Without the union executives, this union would cease to exist. I am internally grateful for a supportive team who also happen to be my best friends. The amicable community this team has built is truly heart warming.

Stay Connected!

UNION EVENTS AND UPDATES

Join us on the WLLSU Discord server to stay up to date on upcoming events and union activities, and feel free to join our general meetings every other Thursday at 8pm! The next meeting will be October 3rd!
